➤ World Tribal Day Program :

The College celebrated World Tribal Day on 9th August 2019. The program chaired by the college's Dr. Raghunath Mahajan, the keynote speaker was Dr. Mohan Pavara (University Management Council Member), Chief guest was Dr. Mahendra Wadhe (SSVPS College of Arts and Commerce, Dhule).

The World Tribal Day program started with the worship of the image of Birsa Munda. College students welcomed the chief guests with tribal songs. After that, the president of the program and the chief guest were welcomed with roses.

Program Introduction:

A sable Pramila MSW Part-2 student was introducing to the programme. Tribal society is the life of the neglected world. Tribal society is plagued by poverty, ignorance, health issues, and superstition. The United Nations, in its General Assembly, declared August 9 as World Tribal Day for all participating countries, with a view to resolving the problems of the tribal community. Since then, World Tribal Day has been celebrated with great enthusiasm all over the world. As part of that, we are celebrating World Tribal Day in college today. This was stated in the introduction.

Student's speech:

College students expressed their thoughts on the occasion of World Tribal Day.

1. Avinash Gavit - expressed his thoughts on the life of Krantiveer Birsa Munde.
2. Suresh Jagtap - Khajya Naik expressed his thoughts on how he worked on the lives of tribal people.
3. Suresh Gaikwad - Holi, marriage system mountain gods, tried to present the culture of the tribals.
4. Ujwala Jadhav - She performed the song Adivasi Rani.
5. Lalita Sable - Tribal Problems - Superstition, Tribal Education Problems, Tribal Health Problems, Malnutrition, Tribal Fraud, etc.
6. Ajay Gangurde - He performed the song Konkani Bhasha.
7. Sunil Bahiram - In today's situation, despite the availability of education opportunities for tribal children, the problems faced by tribal children in terms of education, as well as the current state of education of tribal children, briefly expressed his thoughts.
8. Vijay Thackeray - Presented a poem on the influence of other cultures on the original wealth of the tribals.

The keynote Address: Prof. Dr. Mohan Pawara (University Management Council Member):

Prof. Dr. Mohan Pawara expressed his views on the diversity of tribal society, dowry system, marriage system, culture, and changes in the present situation. Maharani Hirai, Baburao Shedmake, Narayan Singh Uike, Raghoji Bhangre, Bakhat Bulandshah, Dalpatshah, Raghunathshah, Veerangana Rani Durgavati Madavi, Kumra Bhima, Tantraya Bhill, Khajya Naik, Khejya Naik, Birsa Munda, Birsa Mundai You will find many precious gems like Tana Bhagat. Today, the history of all these needs to be brought before the world.

While understanding the significance of 9th August, it is necessary to understand the problems of the tribal community, their highly distinctive culture, their relationship with nature, their high values of life. Attacks on tribal culture and their integration in the name of the mainstream have endangered tribal culture. At the international level, they should be made aware of the signals for the rights of the tribal community, raising awareness among them for their rights, living together in the community, enriching their lives as a group, all these things. He expressed the view that this should be celebrated as a day of self-respect. He also presented the poem 'Mahuchi Phule'.

The chief guest speech : ( Prof.Dr. Mahendra Kumar Wadhe)

The chief guest of the program was Prof.Dr. Mahendra Kumar Wadhe gave guidance on tribal history. It sheds light on the language of the tribals, the movement, and the life of Birsa Munda. Tribals are the aborigines of the earth and there are 461 tribal tribes living in India. Some more castes are on the way to be included in the tribal caste today. Inspired by the United Nations, 1994-2005 was celebrated as the 'Tribal Decade'. In India, mainly Chenchu Irula, Kadar, Kota Negro, Proto Australoid ethnic groups live in Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, and Andhra Pradesh. In Central India, Bihar, Orissa, Madhya Pradesh, Pt. The major castes living in the state of Bengal are Gond, Santhal, Bhumji, Ho, Orion, Munda, Korva. The Bhils live in Rajasthan, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Goa, Daman-Diu, Dadra, Nagar Haveli, and in the Union Territories. Apart from these, Koli, Kokana-Kokani, Warli, Thakur, Katkari, Andhra Pardhan, Kolam, Korku, Madia, Gond, Raj-Gond tribes live. Tribals are not Hindus, the court ruled in a case on January 19, 1979. Tribal society has been suffering injustice since the time of Eklavya. Even historians have not stopped doing injustice. Tribal families should get their Nasgirk traditional habitat, they should get the lands they use, he said, adding that efforts need to be made for this.

Presidential Conclusion:

President of the program Prof. Dr. Raghunath Mahajan gave guidance on the present situation of the tribal community, the way of life of the tribal community, the diversity of the tribal community, and various features of the tribal community. In the same way that it is the responsibility of the government to bring the tribal community into the mainstream of development, social activists need to work for the development of the tribal community, he said.

The program was moderated by Anita Gavit and the vote of thanks was given by Lakshmi Sable.

Resource Person: Prof. Vilas Chavan (Palesha College, Dhule)

Every person is different, Every person has certain characteristics so they are different from others. Prof. Vilas Chavan Sir explained in detail what this difference is and how it makes a personality. Students were given explanations through questions and answers on what exactly can be defined as personality. For personality development, a person should be efficient, enthusiastic, happy, and motivated by his goal. Take control of your emotions, be calm and focused on a problem, respect yourself and others, always have a positive outlook, appreciate the good things, develop communication skills, face adversity with courage, live a stress-free life. The confidence that can be developed well was instilled in the students by the teachers. Personality development takes place if one develops one's own qualities without giving more importance to one's appearance. In very simple words, Prof. Vilas Chavan Sir gave a detailed presentation. At this time, the students also got their questions answered by the teachers.

Lecture - 2

Subject: Competitive Exam Guidance

Date: 13/09/2019

Resource Person: Mr.Rahul Hange (Unique Academy, Dhule)

The mentality of preferring competitive exams as a career option has now grown in most of the students. Turning to competitive exams is not just about government jobs, good salaries, red light vehicles, social prestige. So it is very important to be clear about exactly what you want to achieve. Don't think so.Mr. Rahul Hange put it in front of the students.

Today many students are studying for MPSC, UPSC. They form an opinion about what they want to be. Some even start trying. However, they do not have enough information about these exams or they do not know it well. So they look discouraged. At times, they only prepare for a position if they have it in mind. Doesn't pay attention to exams for other positions. Therefore, planned efforts must be accompanied. Candidates are likely to lose if they get stuck in one and the same exam. So there is a possibility of failure.

Explained the information of various competitive examinations of Central and State Public Service Commission to the students. First of all, the level of stiffness is higher. It is easier to take exams for other positions if you study well. In this way, the misconceptions regarding the competitive exams were explained to the students and also the information about the pattern of the exam and how to prepare for it was given to Hon. Rahul Hange gave it to the students. There were many questions in the minds of the students regarding the competitive examination which were answered very appropriately by the teachers.

Lecture - 3

Subject: Communication skills

Date: 21/09/2019

Resource Person: Mr. Pravin Khare (PRO, Jawahar Medical Foundation, Dhule)

Communication is the first step to expression. Communication is the most important step in communicating your message to others. No specific conditions are required for communication. Communication is a great way to exchange ideas. With the help of various examples, the teacher informed the students about the type of communication, silence, or touch.

How important it is to develop listening skills in order to communicate well and effectively. As well as how misunderstandings are created when communicating. The game was played for how dialogue is reflected in discord. Through the game, Sara made an effective presentation on the barriers to communication and what should be taken care of to make the communication effective.

He gave many relevant examples to build confidence that communication skills can be acquired with effort. He encouraged students to write in newspapers. It is also possible to improve communication skills by participating in various programs. In his lecture, Sara gave a detailed presentation on how confidence is built and how the person in front of you is affected by your communication.

Lecture - 4

Subject: Social Media

Date: 27/09/2019

Resource Person: Prof. Nilesh Rote (Vidyardhini College, Dhule)

What exactly is social media, its concept, and its origin? Prof. Nilesh Rote Sir informed the students at the beginning. He then emphasized the impact of social media on society and the impact of social media on the lives of the youth. He discussed the advantages and disadvantages of social media with the students. People are more concerned about the inbox filled with notifications that people have increased on Facebook, WhatsApp, and Twitter due to social media. From all the data on what a person likes, what he comments on, what videos he watches, a person's interest, and personality can be noticed. People who do not know their own religion start talking about other people's religion. Ethnic rifts begin to form. Therefore, the youth should stay away from such elements. It is better not to do anything that will create any controversy in society through social media. It keeps your personality good.

Social media is a great means of expression. So try to write on something good. It is better not to get stuck in the forward and sharing option without understanding something. Today, young people only know the fun of social media. But the strength is not known. It is more important to understand. Detailed layout in this regard prof. Rote Sir did so while guiding the students.

Lecture no. - 5

Subject: Stress-free examination

Date: 13/12/2019

Resource Person: Dr. Yogesh Bhadane (President - Bhadane Foundation, Nashik)

The exam said that it is very easy to get stressed, so whatever the extra stress of the exam, the expected result is not obtained. Therefore, I prepared the exam in a stress-free environment and if I take the exam later, I will get a very good result. Bhadane Sir gave the students in the early stages of the lecture.

Mr. Bhadane himself discussed with the students what causes stress during the exams and what effect it has on them and through the discussion he learned about the stress and stress on the students. This time, he gave guidance on the stress of exams and explained how life is full of stress. It should be drained at the right time. Other wise failure occurs. Many ailments are affected, mental concentration declines, headaches begin, study difficulties occur, fatigue begins to occur, and at times exacerbates mental imbalance, irritability, irritability, depression, high blood pressure, and heart disease. Informed about it.

He also suggested some solutions for stress-free exams. In this, work to the best of your ability, do not allow inferiority complex, do not create more enemies, reduce your needs, decide what you want to achieve first, always think positive. You get exactly what you expect. This teacher explained to the students in a simple way and also guided the students through demonstrations on how to meditate.

Lecture - 6

Subject: Gender Equality

Date: 31/01/2020

Friend: Prof. Aarti Baride (Jai Hind College, Dhule)

What exactly does the word 'gender equality' mean about natural and social sexism and the problems it creates for women? Prof. Aarti Baride did the layout at the beginning. He then informed the students about the ancient place of women and how the secondary place of women has been created in the Middle Ages and modern times. Explained the factors on which gender is based on family, economy, religion, media based on various examples.

Giving various examples based on the topic of gender equality, Madam introduced the topic of discussion among the students and brought about a discussion. So the students themselves realized how many problems women really face due to gender discrimination. Such reactions were expressed by the students during the discussion. The goal should be to eliminate discrimination and violence against women in all walks of life, and it must start with the family. Problems related to child marriage, dowry system, sexual abuse, domestic violence are related to women. Efforts should be made at all levels to overcome this.

Gender equality requires more cultural and behavioral change. Only when the mindset of the society changes will gender equality be created. Guidance in this regard prof. Aarti Baride did the students.

Lecture no. - 7

Subject: Save daughter, teach daughter

Date: 10/02/2020

Resource Person: Dr. Vinod Uparvat (SNDT College, Dhule)

The declining proportion of girls in the society is due to the fact that female feticide is on the rise in India. It is tainted with Indian culture. The declining proportion of girls is a matter of serious concern and concern. He made a statement about this.

There is only one way to improve the status of women in society and that is through education as a campaign launched by Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi in 2015. This campaign will increase the proportion of women in the society, improve their status and give them a place in society. If there is education, women will be aware of their rights and will strive for equal rights with men. They will make their own decisions. He guided the students on these issues.

Also, if the level of education of women increases, they will play an important role in the development of the country. This was discussed with the students. In this discussion, all the students presented many questions and presented their thoughts clinically. The satisfaction of students' questions.

At the presidential conclusion of the program, Hon. Prof.Dr. Jalindar Adsule said that students should have love and loyalty towards the symbol of the country which is theirs. Unity in diversity is the motto of our national unity. Since the Indian Constitution gives equal rights to all Indians, there is no discrimination between individuals on the basis of religion or caste. It helped to create unity in society. The Constitution is the mainstay of our national unity. In this way, the students were guided by Dr.Jalinadr Adasule.

Lecture - 10

Subject: How to find employment opportunities

Date: 14/03/2020

Resource Person: Mr. Vijay Tukaram Thankar

There is a need to find new employment opportunities. He opined that the mentality of getting employment only by taking traditional education should be changed. Expressed by Mr.Vijay Thankar. The many employment opportunities currently available in various fields require not only higher education but also employment opportunities if you combine your interests, inclinations, and training properly. You just have to be more discriminating with the help you render toward other people. Even small capital can create good employment.

After getting MSW, the students were informed about the exact job opportunities available in the field and the skills they need to have. He also gave guidance on how the project report should be written. The students discussed how to find a new job and the difficulties and frustrations in finding a job. Many questions were resolved through discussion. The lecture gave the students confidence to find new jobs. The students participated in the discussion in a very enthusiastic atmosphere.

Thus during the 10 lectures conducted under the Student Personality Development Workshop, the students participated in an enthusiastic atmosphere.

➤ Problems of the Third Gender :

The college organized programme on Problems of the Third Gender on 03 December 2019. Hon.Shabina Sheikh was the Resource Person of this programme. Hon'ble Shabina Sheikh spoke on what exactly the third gender is and what problems of the third gender have to face in society. What kind of mental, emotional changes take place in the third gender. What are the difficulties faced by the third gender while living in a family and society? Since the family members are living with the third gender in the house, what kind of treatment does the family get from the society and what questions do they have to face, and also the treatment given by the society to the third gender is very hateful. They are not accommodated in the mainstream of society so their livelihood is in question. They do not get health, education facilities. Even their basic needs are not being met. Therefore, the life of the third gender is very miserable. Shabina Sheikh discussed this with the students and shared her experiences with the students. At this time, many questions about the third gender in the minds of the students were openly asked by the students to Hon'ble Shabina Sheikh and she answered the students very sarcastically. This removed the misconceptions in the minds of the students about the third gender and the third gender should be treated as a human being in the society, they should get all the rights in the society, the students expressed their views. Through this, a new subject was introduced to the students.
