One Week Course on Research Methodology Report

Dates – 5th To 10 September 2022

Inaugural Session:

A one-week research methodology course was conducted from 5th to 10th September 2022 on behalf of Research and Development Center of Babasaheb Ambedkar College of Social Work. College Principal Raghunath Mahajan presided over the inauguration ceremony of this program. Dr. Bharat Khandagale of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru Social Work Amalner College was present as the inaugural function.

Dr. Bharat Khandagale sir while guiding the audience said that research is very important for the development of the country. Development in any field is not possible without research. Therefore, students should not only develop themselves but also contribute to the development of the country while doing research. The principal of the college guided and wished the participants present in this program.

Date – Monday, 5 September 2022

Session II

In the second session of the course, Bharat Khandagale gave guidance on how to make a research outline and which points should be included in the outline. While preparing the research outline, it is mentioned that the title should include what, who, and in which areas the researcher is going to study. Speaking further, he also guided on the importance of research topic, research design, data collection method, sample selection method.

Date – Tuesday, 6 September 2022

Session III

In the third session of the research course, Gopal Nimbalkar presented the concept of social research and social work research. He further said that social problems are studied in social research. Through this study, answers to social problems are sought. But, in social work research, knowledge of social work is tested. The applicability of social work knowledge is examined. Also, the usability of the social work method is examined. Research students should grasp this difference between social research and social work research.

Session IV

In the second part of the third session, Dr. Raghunath Mahajan, the principal of the college, gave guidance on the type of research plan. Exploratory research design, diagnostic research design, descriptive research design and experimental design were analyzed.

Date – Wednesday, 7 September 2022.

Session V

Dr. Rajendra Baisane guided the students on research hypothesis in the fourth semester of the research course. In this he said that just as a light house shows the direction of a ship at sea, in research a hypothesis determines the direction of the research. Speaking further, he explained the formation of hypothesis and the essential groups of hypothesis formation. Dr. Baisane analyzed negative hypothesis, positive hypothesis and null hypothesis.

Session VI

In the fifth session of the research course, Dr. Pramod Bhumbe gave a presentation on methods of data collection and their use in research. In it he gave guidance on the difference between probability sampling method and non-probability sampling method. At the same time, the use and importance of data collection method in the research was analyzed.

Date – Thursday, 8 September 2022

Session VII

In the seventh semester of the research course, Dr. Rahul Aher guided the students on the topic of data collection tools. He analyzed the interview schedule, questionnaire, interview and observation in the primary method of data collection and also analyzed the books, articles, newspapers, government documents in the secondary data collection method. Speaking further, he said that data collection is the soul of research. The reliability of the research findings depends on the extent to which the information obtained in the research is true.

Session VIII

In the eighth session of the course, Professor Dr. Farida Khan gave guidance on statistics and its application in research. Dr. Farida Khan also guided on how to analyze the facts in the research, presentation of the facts.

Date – Friday, 9 September 2022

Session IX

Professor Dr. Preeti Vahane guided the topic of Review of Reference Literature in Research in the ninth session of the course. Speaking further, she said that the success of research depends on the study of research literature. So the subject should be careful while reviewing the research literature.

Session X

In the 10th session of the course, Dr. Pramod Bhumbe guided on research report writing. While organizing the research, Dr. Bahumbe explained how to organize research importance, topic analysis, and arrangement of facts, conclusions and suggestions.

Date – Saturday, 10 September 2022

Session XI

In the eleventh session of the course Dr. Pramod Bhumbe guided on Citation Method in Research Report. He explained the types and importance of reference method in research. In it he elaborated MLA, APA, MHRA reference methods.

Valedictory Session
