

Institutional Distinctiveness

Our college has a very broad vision to serve the downtrodden and weaker sections of society. Also looking at the problems of the people. Social work training also emphasizes exposing students to the field realities and socio-economic conditions of people living in rural, tribal, and urban areas. Keeping this vision in mind, it was discussed in the IQAC committee meeting that there is a need to hold all national-level seminars and conferences on the topic of Sustainable Development and it was decided that we should organize seminars on sustainable development as the main topic for the next five years. Therefore, it was decided in the meeting to hold a seminar on poverty alleviation as the first goal of sustainable development in the academic year 2022-23.
